Roles and expectations of Leadership Academy Students:

- Attend all scheduled meetings over the course of the 5-month program (conflicts need to be discussed prior to meetings)
 - 3 in school meetings
 - 3 prep meetings in the evening during the week where students will watch speakers and also prepare their own presentations
 - 2 rehearsals the week prior in the evening
 - Final Leadership Forum at Spring Lake Manor from 5-8pm – tentatively planned for Sunday March 19, 2017.
- Prepare for all meetings – preparation may require picking a topic, researching, practicing, working on artwork, meeting team members, etc.
- Sell required number of fundraising tickets or pay one-time fee to cover student's tuition and ticket (see last page for fees associated with the event).

Participation in the final leadership forum can take several forms. Students are invited to deliver individual or group talks, videos, demonstrations, or musical performances. All presentations and performances must follow the theme – Preparation – Pride – Possibilities.
